Collaboration coffee breakout

Day 2, Session 1

Thursday 12 June, 10.45am-11.30am (45 minutes)

There are three choices.

Choose one 45 minute session to join.

Option 1

Setting up an Equal Lives Sounding Board

Hosts: Madeline Cooper and Nic Crosby

Location: Sycamore 4

- The Equal Lives team think it's really important to get better at listening to the people we work alongside.
- We want to talk about setting up a sounding board of people who can help inform the work we do.
- This is the first time we will have this discussion, we want to hear from everyone right at the beginning.
- This could be a really exciting development please come along and share your thoughts.

Option 2

The impact of collaboration

Hosts: Alice McColl, Lucy Tsuchida, Bilaal Ali and Ikra Shakoor

Location: Garden Suite

- Hear about all the collaboration needed to enable young disabled people to access employment.

Who is involved and how do they work together?

- Hear from a young disabled adult about their experience of effective collaboration to support their journey to employment.

- Find out about the cost, benefits and real-life value of collaboration from Internships Work.

Option 3

Getting our messages picked up by policy makers

Hosts: Philippa Russell and Jim Thomas

Location: Boardroom

- Who are the policy makers?
- How do we make sure we are heard?
- How can we influence change and ensure action through collaboration?
