

RAGE AGAINST THE COMMISSIONING MACHINE

Unlock the true potential of Commissioning

PROGRAMME

8TH, 9TH, 10TH JUNE 2021

BOOK
NOW

TUESDAY 8TH JUNE

10.00 - 10.15      Opening Address – Bill Love, NDTi

10.15 - 10.45      Why Bringing Commissioning into CLS Makes A Difference
Jenny Pitts and Mike Richardson, NDTi

Delivering radical commissioning that enables people to have a good life. Jenny and Mike share the rationale for bringing commissioning into the CLS programme and how this ensures that through local market facilitation better outcomes are achieved.

10.45 – 11.00      Break

11.00 - 11.45      A Scottish Perspective – Des McCart and Diana Hekerem

Des and Diana will share their knowledge and experience of developing outcome based commissioning in Scotland. Both will share how public sector commissioners can best facilitate change and support communities to achieve what matters most to them.

11.45 - 12.30      A Welsh Perspective - Maria Bell

Maria Bell, Head of Policy for the National Commissioning Board for Wales shares her perspective on their innovative approach to commissioning and importantly building positive relationships with providers - Lets Agree to Agree.

12.30 - 13.30      Lunch Break

13.30 - 14.30      A Users View – Joe Powell

Why does Commissioning need to change. Joe Powell speaks from direct experience and has no qualms in telling us why things need to be different.

14.30 – 14.45      Break

14.45 – 15.45      A Carers View - Jane Friswell

Vision for an Ordinary Life- Jane Friswell, SEND consultant, wants to make clear with commissioners the reasons why current provision does not offer people a 'Good Life' and why the time is right for commissioning to radically change.

15.45 – 16.00      Close

WEDNESDAY 9TH JUNE

09.15 – 09.30      Welcome

09.30 – 10.30      Human Rights – Sanchita Hosali

Sanchita Hosali, Director of British Institute of Human Rights, brings a refreshing perspective on Human Rights and poses questions and answers around the use of Human Rights Law within the context of Commissioning.

10.30 – 11.00      Break

11.00 – 12.00      The Economic Debate – Tom Lloyd

Community wealth building is a people-centred approach to local economic development. It reorganises local economies to be fairer. It stops wealth flowing out of our communities, towns and cities. Instead, it places control of this wealth into the hands of local people, communities, businesses and organisations - Tom tells us how.

12.00 – 13.00      Lunch Break

13.00 – 14.00      Why Do We Need Punk Commissioning? – Stephen Chandler

...there are big question marks over the very models of care that underpin social care today' - a line taken from the Nine Statements to help shape Adult Social Care reform. We ask Stephen Chandler President of ADASS and Director of Social Care in Oxfordshire to share his thoughts on how commissioning need to change to ensure everyone has a good life.

14.00 – 14.30      Break

14.30 – 15.30      Building Trust – Jacqui Sjenitzer

At the heart of a radically different commissioning model, we need very different relationships which are built on trust. Understanding what this requires, how we go about this, and what it looks like in practice is vital. Jacqui Sjenitzer, NDTi associate and leadership expert, will help us better understand what trust entails and how important it is.

15.30 – 15.45      Close

THURSDAY 10TH JUNE

09.15 – 09.30 Welcome

09.30 – 10.30 The Art of the Possible in Public Procurement – Julian Blake
Julian Blake, co author of the Art of the Possible in Public Procurement and Lawyer, continues to raise the issue of commissioners as shapers of the local ecosystem and makes clear the role of Social Value and Partnerships as central tenets of future commissioning activity.

10.30 – 11.00 Break

11.00 – 12.15 Understanding the Data – Mike Richardson, NDTi
In public services we hold a great deal of data and information that is not always used to really understand the impact of what we are doing. Mike brings the data alive in this session to help us look at the 'whole system' and the vital role of commissioning in that.

12.15-13.15 Lunch Break

13.15 – 15.45 Raging in Action - Joy Kennard, Sam Smith, Keri Llewelyn
Including a 15 minute break
The Art of the Possible is reflected in this afternoon's sessions with Commissioners and Providers who are 'Raging in Action' and can share their experiences of radically changing the way they commission services and also provide a different more innovative style of delivery

15.45 – 16.15 Discussion, Reflections, Actions

