Deinstitutionalisation is a global challenge: Person centred, local and small

17 October, 1-3pm UK / 2-4pm CET

Co-Chair Steven Allen (he / him)

Steven Allen is Executive Director of the Validity Foundation, a leading international non-governmental organisation that promotes the human rights of persons with disabilities through pursuing legal strategies in Europe, Africa, and beyond. He is an expert in international disability rights law and jurisprudence, having led and contributed to numerous monitoring, documentation, advocacy, and strategic litigation initiatives on themes including legal capacity, independent living and inclusion in the community, equality and non-discrimination, inclusive education, and freedom from torture and ill-treatment.

Steven is a member of the editorial board of the International Journal of Disability and Social Justice, and is a faculty member on the Postgraduate Diploma in International Mental Health, Law, Policy & Rights-based Services organised by the Centre for Mental Health Law and Policy, Indian Law Society. He also holds a background in community development and conflict transformation, and the rights of the child. Steven also holds an LLB (Hons.) from the University of London.

This event is hosted by IRSSV (Slovenia) and NDTi (UK)